Bernard Cazeneuve makes the closing of Forum of Dialogue with Islam of France

Remarks of Interior Minister Cazeneuve

Paris, Washington DC, 31.03.2016, 03:00 Time

USPA NEWS - The second edition of the Dialogue with Islam in France brought together Mr President of the CFCM, rectors, imams, politicians, before the PM Manuel Valls and Bernard Cazeneuve the Minister of the Interior March 21, 2016. Here are the successive excerpt of Cazeneuve's remarks about deradicalization

REMARKS OF INTERIOR MINISTER : MUSLIM COUNCIL AND OTHER MUSLIM LEADERS AND PREVENTING RADICALISATION - PART III-----

"Thus, the organization of aid and the construction and management of places of worship, after extensive work, will be a useful guide to the elected as well as imams and leaders of the cult.-----

Thus, the will to fight against threats and attacks against Muslims are being conducted into a protective device covering more than 1000 mosques and a flawless mobilization of justice and investigation services. It seems essential that the perpetrators of such intolerable acts know that they will relentlessly sought, arrested and punished by the justice of France. I see, though, in the very significant drop in anti-Muslim acts since the beginning of 2016 (33 acts in January-February 2016 against 196 acts in January-February 2015) a consequence of this attitude very good firmness.-----

Within a few months, this forum for dialogue has therefore become necessary. It has demonstrated its usefulness. And I'm also pleased to see it has allowed us to share today on a particularly serious matter, the prevention of radicalization, as I had proposed on 29 November at the World Institute Arab citizen at the Rally of Muslims in France. À l'Institut du monde arabe lors du Rassemblement citoyen des musulmans de France." Interior Minister, Bernard Cazeneuve, stated.
